TSC San Diego Recognized for Outstanding Performance

SAN DIEGO -- Capt. Antonio Cardoso, commanding officer, Training Support Center (TSC) San Diego, and Command Master Chief Kelvin Carter presented the 2011 Naval Education and Training Command (NETC) Training Excellence Award to staff members during a ceremony July 26.

"This is a very proud day for TSC San Diego because our staff is receiving the award for the third consecutive year." said Scott Trulove, TSC San Diego's Executive Director. "I truly believe that this honor recognizes TSC San Diego as the best in class support organization."

TSC San Diego received the recognition because of its outstanding performance, accomplishment and excellent delivery of education and training. The center received a plaque and a pennant from NETC headquarters in Pensacola, Fla. They are authorized to display the pennant throughout the 2012 calendar year.

"This recognition reinforces our daily commitment to keeping first things first, which is serving the students," Trulove said.

TSC San Diego includes three geographically separate service support centers that support 15 independent learning sites within the San Diego region. The command supports both surface Navy and aviation schools and averages 60,000 students per year.
